Mawnan WI - We return from a wonderful sunny summer to our autumn programme which begins with the Village Harvest Supper on Friday 7th September starting at 7.30pm in the Memorial Hall. This year we have the fabulous Pentyr Singers to entertain us and a ticket for £7.50 includes a Ploughman's Supper - these are available from the Post Office. This is open to everyone in the village and we hope to welcome those who have been before as well as new-comers.

The following week on Thursday 13th September we have invited Kevin Thomas to talk to us about weather forecasting in Cornwall - not an easy thing to do! Visitors and non-members are most welcome to our Monthly Meeting.

The final event we are organising to celebrate the centenary of women's suffrage will be held on Sunday 16th September at 5.30pm when we are showing a free screening of the film "Suffragette". This event has been funded by our county councillor, John Bastin, to enable us to celebrate together the 100 years since some women got the vote. Refreshments will be provided but you may like to bring a bottle! Entrance will be by free ticket which should be obtained in advance. They will be available at the Harvest Supper and subsequently from Cornish Maid and the Post Office from 7th September. Women, girls, men and boys of the village are all invited.

Panto! Panto! - Readings are the 10th and September 7pm in the memorial Hall. It's open to Adults and the over 12's the first two readings. Under 12's auditions 2 weeks later. Contact Marion 25026 or Angela 251140
